

Level 3 Award in Supporting Children and Young People's Speech, Language and Communication, via Platform 3

Wendy Lee Ltd is working in collaboration with The Communication Trust and NCFE CACHE to offer the Level 3 qualification: Supporting Children and Young People's Speech, Language and Communication. The course is studied via Platform 3, an online interactive learning platform, with support from highly qualified and experienced tutors.

Our aim is to enable learners to better understand speech, language and communication and to know how to support these crucial skills in all children and young people, including those with speech, language and communication needs (SLCN).

The Qualification

The qualification develops the knowledge and skills necessary for supporting speech, language and communication development of children and young people.

It will enable the learner to recognise and identify speech, language and communication needs (SLCN) and provide appropriate support for individuals.

Specifically, it provides a professional development opportunity that will enable the learner to:

- understand the importance of speech, language and communication
- know the pattern of typical communication development
- support and promote speech, language and communication development of all children
- recognise non typical communication and identify the signs of those children experiencing difficulties
- explore ways to support children and young people who have speech, language and communication needs (SLCN).

The award is accredited by the awarding body, NCFE CACHE, for more information follow the link

How does it work?

To achieve the qualification, learners must pass two mandatory units plus one optional unit, completion usually taking 26 weeks.

For more information on what is covered in each unit, either drop us a line or follow the link.

Most of the learning takes place through online interactive materials, enabling flexibility to study at a time and place convenient for the learner; this will be coupled with support from highly qualified and experienced practitioners.

Assessment will be through a work place portfolio, enabling the learner to apply and demonstrate what they have learned, their knowledge and practical skills developed. The learner will be assigned an assessor who will be on hand to offer structured guidance and learning support throughout the qualification.

Wherever possible the learner will be put in touch with other learners in their locality, enabling peer support. There is also an online forum where the learners can share experiences.

Who is it for?

The award is for anyone who wants a qualification that will help them to develop knowledge and skills of:

- Speech, language and communication development across the age range
- The role played by adults in supporting speech, language and communication
- How to support children and young people with SLCN or, those learning English as an additional language
- The links between poor language and emotional needs.
- How to work with and support parents of children with SLCN
- How to apply this knowledge to real work settings, ensuring knowledge and skills impact on practice

Costs

Standard package £450.00 per learner

Blended Learning Package £500.00 per learner (five plus learners)

We also offer “blended learning” options for organisations, providing in house sessions with learners in addition to the work through the platform. We are able to provide bespoke options for organisations should this be preferred.
